

Day in Washington

2014 Supermarket Industry Fly-in
April 30 – May 1 | Washington, DC

Day in Washington

The Annual Supermarket Fly-in provides supermarket industry food retailers and wholesalers with an opportunity to engage in policy discussions with top-level lawmakers and their staff. Face-to-face meetings such as these provide an unparalleled opportunity to educate your elected officials on the important role retailers and wholesalers play as job creators and community leaders, while advocating on key industry issues that include:

- Employee Full-Time Definition Under Affordable Care Act
- Preventing the FDA from Expanding Chain Restaurant Menu Labeling to Grocery Stores
- Ensuring Fair Tax Policy (to include opposing LIFO repeal, addressing tax extenders, Main Street Fairness)
- Protecting Our Customers' Information and Payment Data

Speaker:

U.S. Senator Joe Donnelly (D-IN)
First elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 2006, he was elected to the Senate in 2012. Senator Donnelly is the lead co-sponsor of S.1188 Forty Hours is Full Time Act.
