eXPERIENCE

Developing Leadership

Now that you have built your team, lift them up! Send a group to redesigned three-day Future Leaders eXperience program, Sunday – Tuesday, June 11 – 13 at McCormick Place Chicago.

Future Leaders eXperience will be a leadership laboratory that actively engages high-potential employees in honing their leadership and management skills through team-based problem-solving that will help them refine their own brand, their employer brand and increase their understanding of the industry. The Future Leaders program allows for time for team dinners Monday, June 12 so you can reinforce the leadership messages of your company culture with your most promising team members. Future Leaders will also include opportunities for senior executives to share their leadership journeys with today's rising stars and help them plot their own success stories in the industry.

Future Leaders individual member registration cost is $795 but is reduced to $545 if you send a group of 10 or more and are in the first 300 to register.

Register online at www.fmi.org/futureleaders.

Technology Enabling Path to Modern Retailing

Tuesday – Wednesday, June 13 – 14, 2017

Event Location is the Chicago InterContinental Hotel

Pulse hotel rooms are at the nearby

Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile

FMI will host PULSE: Technology Enabling the Path to Modern Retailing Wednesday, June 14, in conjunction with Progressive Grocer and Retail Leader. More than 200 food retailing professionals will gather to take a hard look at technology-driven shopper insights and consumer trends, along with the way technology is being applied today to merchandising, marketing and supply chain issues. The PULSE program will take place at the InterContinental in downtown Chicago. Under separate communication, we will be asking you for attendee recommendations from your organization.

Suggested Attendees = CIO, VP, Technology and other professionals involved in your omnichannel activities.

Pulse invitations that include hotel and travel reimbursements have been issued. If you would like to send your CIO, VP, Technology, Director of IT, eCommerce or other professionals focused on omnichannel, please email Margaret Core at mcore@fmi.org to make arrangements for the invitation.
