Please share any ideas or stories you would like FMI to include in a report to the White House. If you have existing materials, please send them to fmigr@fmi.org

Would you prefer your examples to remain anonymous in the FMI Collective Report? (e.g. not include your company affiliation)

Did you participate in a regional listening session?

If yes:

- Please share the date of the session you attended
- Please share any notable outcomes from your session
- Please share any ideas/stories you shared during your session
- Please share any stories or examples that you found concerning or beneficial from your session

Are you planning to submit your stories directly to the White House Website or would you prefer to submit through FMI?

- Through the White House Website
- Through FMI to the White House
- Both

Would you like to participate in the September White House Conference?

Would you like to participate in an in-person or virtual event(s) as a follow up from the White House Conference?

Do you have any additional comments or is there anything you'd like us to know?
