Company Description: DRD Systems is a company focused on sustainability. In other words, we want to help make your buildings operate as efficiently & smoothly as possible. Whether we are providing a thermal destratification system, or a vacuum drainage system, the end goal is always the same: energy & resource efficiency. Our products, manufactured by Arius and Evac, are the best in the industry and allow us to save big on resources and energy. This, in turn, leads to substantial cost savings, comfort, and peace of mind for our customers.
