Company Description:	veryone knows our strong brands from Bielefeld, made famous by memorable TV commercials and striking campaigns such as “Thank you, Lino” and “Doping for your hair”. Whether in pharmacies or drugstores, our brands Alpecin, ALCINA, Plantur, KAREX, Linola, Bioniq®, and Vagisan have become indispensable problem-solvers in everyday life. We are a fourth-generation family business based in Bielefeld, employing over 900 people all over the world. The name “Dr. Wolff” represents two companies: Dr. Kurt Wolff and Dr. August Wolff, both named after their founders. Dr. Kurt Wolff is synonymous with scientific hair care and innovative oral care, renowned for pioneering brands such as Alpecin, Bioniq®, KAREX, and Plantur. The group also includes ALCINA, which provides professional hair care, styling, and decorative cosmetics for hairdressers. Dr. August Wolff focuses on dermatological and gynecological pharmaceuticals, as well as medical and cosmetic products. Its brands, Vagisan and Linola, are widely recognized for improving quality of life. Amidst large multinational corporations, we see ourselves as the “Gauls of East Westphalia”—defined by our independence and our willingness to forge new paths. For over 120 years, we have remained true to these values.
