

DIGITAL GROCERY COMMERCE:

Consumer Perspectives on Grocery Apps and Digital Trust: Retailer Opportunities for Maximizing Differentiation and Success

Table of Contents:

Background	4
The Peck Fellowship Year Three Project	5
Findings – Qualitative	7
Low concern for sharing personal data	7
Personalization and Privacy Paradox	8
Non-economic gratification	9
Hyperpersonalization	10
Continuum of Concern	10
Desire for access and control of personal data	12
Findings – Assessment of Consumer Sentiment	13
High consumer enthusiasm for successful grocery shopping apps	13
Grocery shopping apps differentiate grocery retailers	16
Recommendations for Retailers	17
Concluding Thoughts	20
Trust Building Through Transparency for Mobile Shopping Apps	21
References and Consulted Works	22
Methodology	24
Qualitative Research	24
Digital Consumer Sentiment Methodology	24